

Fortescue Bay

TASMAN PENINSULA NATIONAL PARK

Walking Tracks from Fortescue Bay Campground

Canoe Bay: The track starts at the northern end of Fortescue Beach and winds its way around the rocky shore to Canoe Bay.

Bivouac Bay: Continue on from Canoe Bay, the track passes through wet sclerophyll forest with some steep climbs. Fires are not permitted.

Tasman Coastal Trail: Waterfall Bay is 8 hours, 17 km one way. The track starts at the northern end of Fortescue Beach and heads north past Canoe and Bivouac Bay along the cliff-tops. The track then climbs inland to Tatnells Hill and emerges again at the cliff top near Camp Falls. The campsites at Camp Falls and Bivouac Bay are fuel stove only. Fires are not permitted. You can continue on to Devils Kitchen – an extra 1.5 hrs.

Cape Hauy: The track starts near the boat ramp. Please park in the day use area if you are not camping at Fortescue Bay. The track climbs through wet sclerophyll forest then descends to Cape Hauy and The Lanterns. At Cape Hauy the track is very close to very high unfenced cliff edges - please supervise children.

Cape Pillar: The track starts on the Fortescue Road, just outside the campground entrance. Beware of strong, gusty winds en-route to Cape Pillar.

Cape Pillar-Mt Fortescue circuit: 3 day walk. There is a camping site at Wughalee Falls.

Three Capes Experience: Pre-bookings are essential for this spectacular 4 day, 3 night journey which starts from Port Arthur Historic Site. Accommodation is in eco-cabins with host rangers. For more information visit www.threecapestrack.com.au

Maps

The Tasman National Park Map and Notes (1: 75000 Tasmap) is an essential item for your walk.

Water

Please note that water supplies cannot be guaranteed on any of the tracks within Tasman National Park so it is necessary to carry adequate supplies. A minimum of 2 litres per person per day is recommended.

Walks	Time	Distance
Short walks
Canoe Bay	2 hrs return	2 km one way
Bivouac Bay	3 hrs return	5 km one way
Cape Hauy	4 hrs return	4.4 km one way
Longer walks
Tasman Trail - Waterfall Bay	8 hrs	17 km one way
Cape Pillar	2 days return	29 km return
Cape Pillar - Mt Fortescue circuit	3 days return	34 km circuit

Tasman National Park looking south from Pirates Bay

Photo: Joe Shemesh

