Saturday 27 January

THE NUBEENA REGATTA

Aboriginal Discovery Ranger Tasman will be making miniature bark canoes and Ranger Brooke will have information on natural areas, shorebirds, threatened species, responsible pet ownership and some activities for kids. Come along and see us at the regatta!

Sunday 28 January

11am SPECIAL EVENT Oi Oi Oi!- Oyster Awareness and free BBQ! @ the Peninsula Aquatic Club in Nubeena (2hrs)

How do you tell the difference between the marine pest pacific oyster and the native mud oyster? Why is it a problem and how can you help in your area to keep them away? On the low tide we can see the hard work local volunteers have already done- come for a walk to the jetty, enjoy a few games to learn about marine pests, or even hire a kayak from the aquatic club which will be open and then join us in a BBQ afterwards

Monday 29 January

10am Cultural Sharing: Humpy Building!@Fortescue Bay Day Use (1hr)

Come along and have fun helping Tasman the Aboriginal Discovery Ranger finish off the traditional aboriginal shelter that is being constructed at Fortescue Bay!
