

Working for National Parks

More Information

Possible Sites To Visit

Your local protected area - Check the website for other possible reserves, parks and protected areas - www.parks.tas.gov.au

Tasmania's National Parks:

Ben Lomond	Mt Field
Cradle Mountain	Mt William
Douglas-Apsley	Narawntapu
Freycinet	Rocky Cape
Hartz Mountains	Savage River
Kent Group	South Bruny
Lake St Clair	Southwest
Maria Island	Strzelecki
Mole Creek Karst	Tasman Walls of Jerusalem
	Wild Rivers

Planning Your Visit...

School groups may be issued a Park Pass exemption following prior application to the Senior Ranger, provided the school excursion is for educational purposes. Exemption forms are available online (www.parks.tas.gov.au/natparks/current_fees.html).

Some Resources

Internet Sites:

www.atn.com.au/tassi/parks-a.htm

www.gorp.away.com/gorp/location/australi/park/tasmania.htm

www.tourtasmania.com

www.australianationalparks.com/tasmania

www.discovertasmania.com.au

www.about-australia.com/tasmania

www.parks.tas.gov.au

Reference Books:

Behind The Scenery: Tasmania's Landforms and Geology, Scalon A, Fish G & Yaxley M ed; Department of Education and the Arts, Tasmania, 1990.

Small Habitats, Hess L, Charles Scribner's Sons, New York, 1976.

Who Brought That In: Plants and Animals Introduced to Australia, Pryor N, Clooins Dove, Victoria, 1993.

Teaching References:

Environmental Starters, Gould League of Victoria (1990)

Outdoor Environmental Games, Gould League of Victoria

