

TASMANIA PARKS AND WILDLIFE SERVICE

PROGRAM

TAMAR ISLAND WETLANDS CENTRE CELEBRATES

World wetlands day

Saturday 2 February 9:30am—2pm

Fun activities for all to enjoy

In the Tamar Island Wetlands Centre and deck area

- 9:30am Aboriginal Welcome to Country and smoking ceremony
- 9:45am Event opening by West Tamar Council Mayor Christina Holmdahl
- 10am & 12.30pm Guided walks with Discovery Ranger
- 9.30am–2pm Tas Reptilia—live snake display
- “Mini Beasts of the Tamar Wetlands”, macro-invertebrate identification
- Plastic Free Launceston—alternatives to plastics display
- Skulls of Tasmanian mammals display
- QVMAG—live skinks and dragonfly display
- Gambusia—“Devil of a Fish” display
- Wetlands bird watching and identification
- Karen Palmer—Tamar tidal monitoring survey information
- West Tamar Council—FOGO display
- Fun activities, art and craft for the whole family
- Book signings available on the day by Judy Rainbird—Skulls of Tasmanian Mammals and Professor Nigel Forteath AM—Birds of Cataract Gorge and Surrounds

On Tamar Island

- 10:30am–2pm Eco-friendly art and craft workshops for all ages
- 10:30am–2pm Tasmanian Aboriginal art workshops
- 12 noon Tasmanian Aboriginal Dance performance
- 11am–2pm Conservation Volunteers Australia—weed management on the island
- 10.30am–2pm Sausage sizzle

SUPPORTED BY:

